

PORRIDGE AND pear

STORY AND ILLUSTRATIONS BY J.E. BURTON

nada!
just took the day off.

GEE, YOU'RE HOME EARLY.

WHAT IS IT
THIS TIME?

KERRY SENT YOU HOME AGAIN.

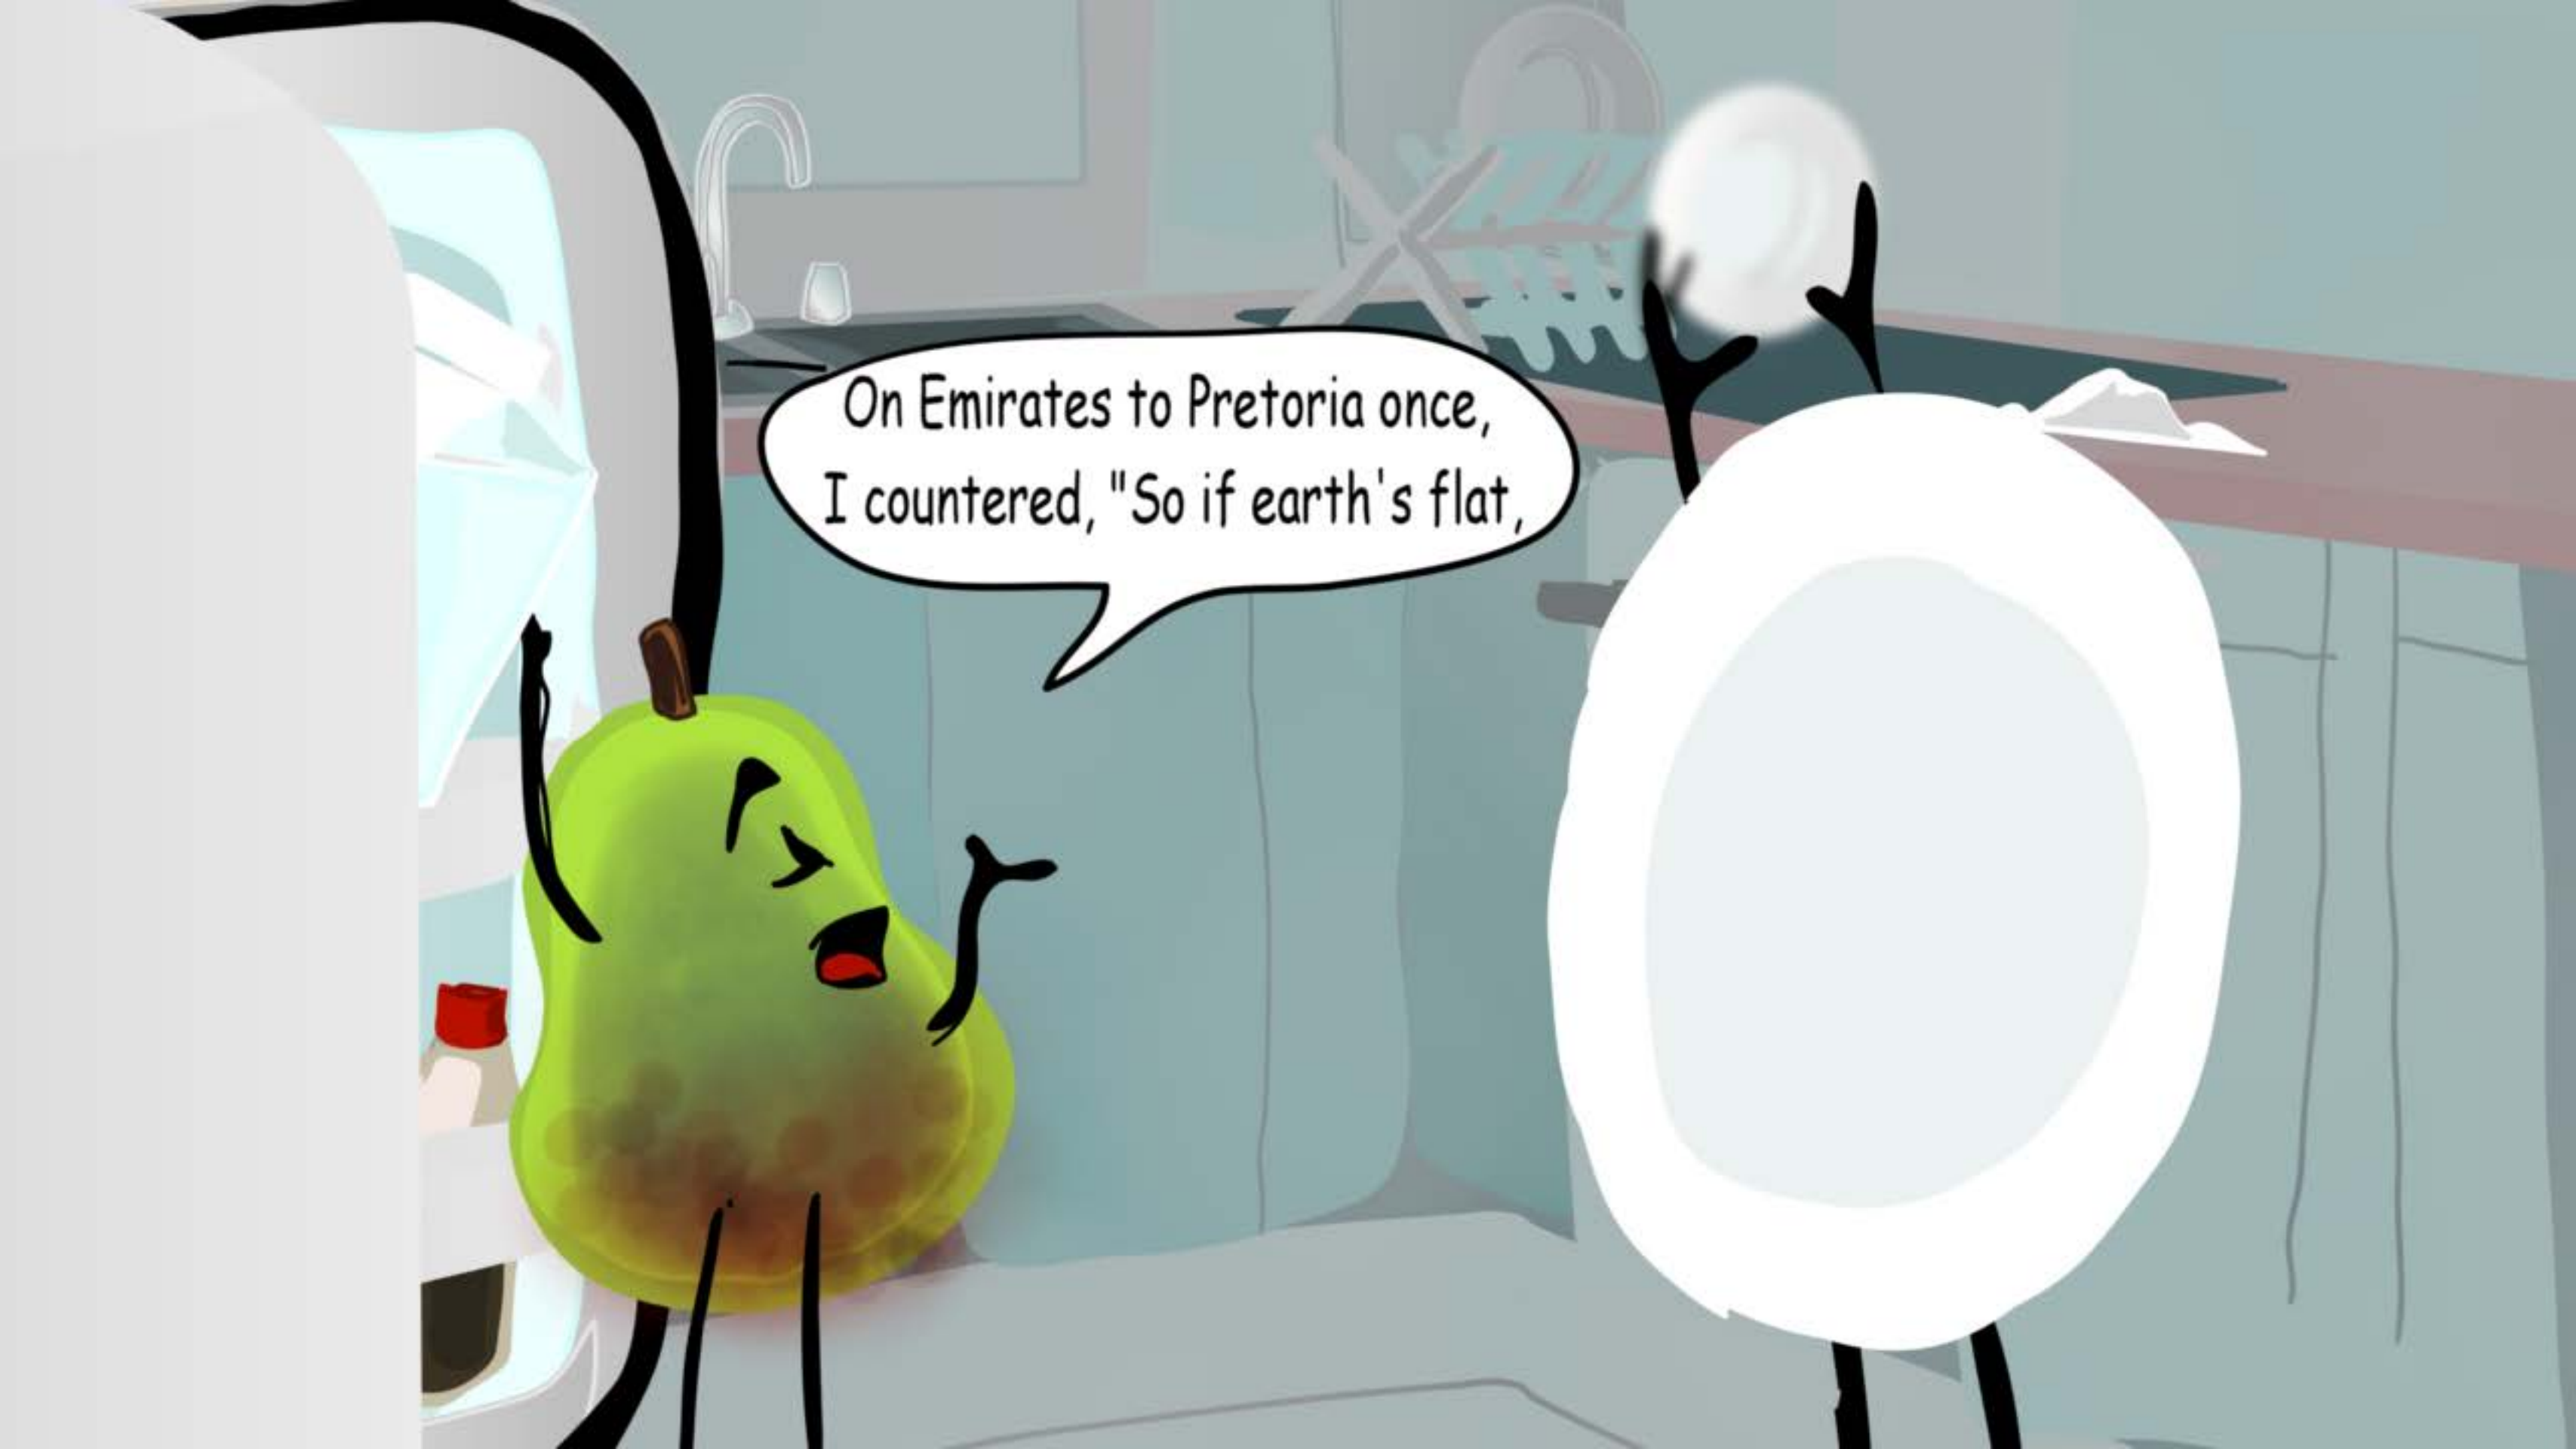

The Educational Board held another talk on Common Core to remind us why it's useful.

WHAT IF COMMON CORE MATH IS PROGRESS? PEOPLE THOUGHT THE WORLD WAS FLAT ONCE.

On Emirates to Pretoria once,
I countered, "So if earth's flat,

"...how's this plane stay right side up?"

Por! what'd my eggs
ever do to you?

ME? IT'S YOU WHO STICKS
THEM WAY BACK THERE.

WHY DO YOU BUY EGGS?
YOU DON'T EVEN EAT THEM!

I do. You can even have some!

Y-YOU- YOU'LL SHARE YOUR EGGS
WITH ME??

Of course!
Now ride with me
to my office lot

-and egg some EB cars!

They wanna count my violations with Common Core,
let'em.

They'll be there all frickin' day!

I'LL KEEP MINE
IN THE COOLER, PLEASE AND THANK YOU.
